1. The University also declares that the conditions of the studies are stipulated in the Rules of the Studies passed in accordance with the requirements of art. 160 and 161 of the Act, and of the regulation, and the specific conditions of studying in the next semester including: the list of subjects with the number of classes and the variety of their forms, the list of names of the teachers and their academic degrees, the location, time and manner of running the classes, and the requirements concerning being awarded a credit in individual subjects shall be announced (via the Internet site www.ue.wroc.pl or a special notice board) before the beginning of each semester.
2. The doctoral student declares that he/she is familiar with the “Rules of the Doctoral Studies in the English language” applicable at the University, and additionally that he/she is familiar with the content of Rector’s Ordinance on payments for the studies made by foreigners who study at the Wrocław University of Economics, referred to in art. 1 par. 2.

1. The doctoral student undertakes to pay the tuition fee pursuant to Rector’s Ordinance No./2010 of 2010 in the amount of:
 - 1)
 - a) EUR (in words: EUR) for the first year of the studies,
 - b) EUR (in words: EUR) for the second year of the studies,
 - c) EUR (in words: EUR) for the third year of the studies,
 - 2) EUR (in words: EUR) for conducting a doctoral program outside the Doctoral Studies, * in terms of PLN based on the average NBP exchange rate applicable on the day of the payment.

2. The doctoral student admitted to the first year of the studies shall make the payment referred to in par. 1 increased by the equivalent of EUR 200.
3. The tuition fee shall be paid no later than 7 days prior to the beginning of the academic year, and the payment receipt shall be subsequently delivered to the relevant Dean's Office.
4. In the case the doctoral student fails to pay the tuition fee, he/she shall receive a letter of remainder and shall be charged statutory interest for the delay. If the doctoral student is in arrears with the tuition fee for a period longer than 3 months, he/she shall be removed from the list of the participants of the studies.
5. The University reserves the right to change the amount of the payments should the education costs change. The education costs shall be duly recorded and payments shall be adjusted at the level ensuring that the costs incurred by the University are covered. The change shall be introduced by an annex to the present Agreement. The doctoral student shall be notified of the change of the amount of the payments no later than three months prior to the introduction of the change.

1. The Agreement shall be concluded for the period of the duration of the studies stipulated in the curriculum of the studies, i.e. for the period of semesters.
2. Should the duration of the studies referred to in par. 1 be prolonged in accordance with the Rules of the Studies, the term of validity of this Agreement shall be prolonged accordingly, without the necessity to prepare a separate annex. The doctoral student declares that he/she is aware of the fact that as a result of prolonging the term of validity of this Agreement, as described in the previous sentence, he/she shall be obliged to make an additional payment in the amount specified by the disposition of the Rector, referred to in art. 1 par. 2 applicable in the academic year in which the Agreement is prolonged.
