

PIOTR KREZEL, POLAND

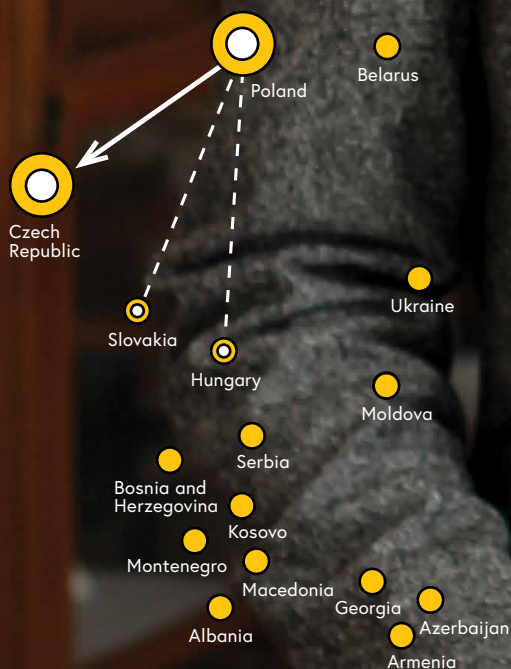

The scholarship made it possible for me to carry out my research project at the Faculty of Education of Charles University in Prague, where I analyzed the content, structure and aesthetics of the Czech teaching materials. I also researched the tendencies in the development of the Czech history didactics and had the opportunity to present the results of my research to other Czech historians, which is very important to a young researcher. Based on my experience, the Visegrad Scholarship Program allows young researchers (PhD students) to launch an international academic career and therefore I strongly recommend it to everyone.

Our Vision

We believe in building partnerships and promoting understanding between people. We also trust the ability of education to bring positive changes. Our vision is to foster innovation and creativity both within the V4 region and internationally.

About

Why to study at a university in Central and Eastern Europe?

Many universities in Central and (South-) Eastern Europe have a long history and provide course programs in all disciplines partly or entirely taught in English. Studying in the region also has many other advantages including affordable living costs and a vibrant cultural life.

What are the advantages of a Visegrad scholarship?

Visegrad scholarships are available for undergraduate, postgraduate, PhD and postdoctoral students in all different disciplines. You can study in any language and study for up to four semesters. There is also no age limit, so you can apply even if you are already out of school. You can also apply for a travel grant.

Where can you study with our scholarship?

You can study at any accredited public or private higher-education institution (college, university, science academy, art academy) in the V4 region and/or in the countries of the Eastern Partnership or Western Balkans.

Are you eligible for a scholarship?

You have to be a citizen of one of the V4 countries and to have successfully completed at least four semesters of university studies at the time of applying for the scholarship.
