3. The application for consent to participate in the classes should be submitted no later than 2 weeks before the beginning of the semester in which the selected subjects occur.
4. The student is responsible for checking whether the deadlines for completing the subjects do not interfere with the timetable of the core curriculum.
5. After receiving consent to pursue a subject not covered by the curriculum, the subject becomes compulsory for the student and is listed in the diploma supplement. However, the grade for this subject is not included in the average grade, and ECTS credits are not included in the completion of the semester in which the subject occurs.
6. Resignation from additional subjects, in the form of a written declaration addressed to the Dean for Student Affairs / Dean of the Branch is possible no later than before the date of the second class.
7. A student who resigns from participation in a subject without submitting the resignation, as specified in section 6, will receive an unsatisfactory grade in the USOS system.
8. If a student does not pass the subjects for which he/she has received consent referred to in section 5, it is concluded that the student has not fulfilled the requirements set forth in the University Academic Regulations for the completion of a semester.
9. In the situation referred to in section 8, the student shall be required to repeat the subject pursuant to the rules set forth in § 21 of the University Academic Regulations.
10. Classes not included in the curriculum, referred to in this regulation, are carried out free of charge, but the repetition is subject to a fee, in accordance with the relevant regulation of the Rector on fees for educational services.
